

Hugh Lincoln Duckett

November 11, 1927 - August 20, 2016

Hugh L. Duckett passed away on Saturday, August 20, 2016 at the age of 88 at Inova Fairfax Hospital.

One of ten children born in Tennessee to Dock and Pinola Presnell Duckett, he is survived by his wife of 65 years, Frances Keys Duckett; children Ellen Fox and Thomas Duckett; two grandchildren, Jamie Fox and Amanda Fox; and three great grandchildren, Marshall Fox, Brendan Fox, and Violet Fox. He is also survived by two sisters, Viola Miller and Alene Hodge, in addition to many other nieces, nephews and relatives.

Hugh was a kind, loving and devoted husband, father, and grandfather who valued honesty. He was a very giving man who cared about others and was always willing to share whatever he had. He tried to make friends wherever he went, and he enjoyed life and never complained in spite of the many health problems he suffered over the years. He was a fan of bluegrass music and spoke often of the Smoky Mountains where he grew up. He will be remembered for his appreciation of what others did for him, and his signature compliment, "I think this is the best I've ever had!"

Visitation will be held on Thursday, August 25, from 6:00 to 8:00 PM at the Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, Virginia. There will also be an additional time for visitation at 11 AM on Friday, August 26, before the

It was sad to hear that Uncle Hugh had passed. He was always very kind to me. He liked to talk and so did I. He always had a story to tell. I liked his laugh. It would make me laugh. I knew I had a good picture of him from the past, so I opened up a huge box with years of photos in it. I sighed, wondering if I would find it. I said out loud, "Uncle Hugh, please help me find your photo". The first pack of photos I picked up had his picture in it. It made me smile.
