

In-Bae Park

August 3, 1941 - April 23, 2025

In-Bae Park, 83, passed away peacefully on April 23, 2025, in Burke, Virginia. Born on August 3, 1941, in Seoul, Korea, In-Bae lived a life marked by generosity, devotion to family, and an unwavering willingness to help others.

Family was at the center of everything In-Bae did. He is survived by his wife Kimberly Park; his two children, Hoon Park and Melissa Won; his son-in-law Dan Won; and his granddaughters, Lily and Alana Won.

Throughout his life, In-Bae was known for his kind heart and selfless nature. Whether someone asked for help or not, he was always ready to lend a hand—tiling floors, painting rooms, or offering rides to visiting friends and family. His joy came from doing things for others and being present in the lives of those he cared about. His bond with his granddaughters brought him immeasurable happiness; playing with them was one of his greatest joys.

He found pleasure in simple pastimes that reflected his love for connection and adventure: fishing trips that brought peace and reflection; road trips that turned into shared memories; football games enjoyed with enthusiasm, never missing a Redskins/Commanders game; and above all else, time spent laughing and playing with his granddaughters.

In-Bae was preceded in death by his mother Jung-Hun Jun and father Hee-

Joon Park. Their memory lived on through the values they instilled in him—values he carried forward into every aspect of his life.

A viewing will be held at Pierce Funeral Home in Manassas, VA on May 4, 2025.

In-Bae Park's legacy is one of quiet strength, boundless generosity, and deep familial love. May his memory bring comfort to all who knew him.

“ Ben and I had the pleasure of working with Kim and In-Bae for many years in the flooring industry. We always respected their beautiful work and cherished them as friends. They are truly two amazing people with a beautiful family and legacy. It broke our hearts to learn of In-Bae passing, so much time has passed, I'm sad we hadn't seen him in years. Our warmest condolences to Kim, and everyone who loved In-Bae. He was a wonderful soul and he will be missed. Love, James and Ben.
