“ Mr. Mitchell was such a sweet man. My grandmother lived on the other side of his fence and he would always give us fresh vegetables from his garden whenever we were all out in our yards at the same time. My dad and I also helped him mow his neighbors yard one time and it was such an enjoyable day with him. I loved seeing his smiling face and wave from the other side of the fence, he will be missed.

“ Lee lived his faith in Jesus our Lord. He always treated me with respect and dignity. Very few men live as Lee did. Words like, virtue and integrity apply to him. Blessed to have known him for over 40 years.
