

Isaac Theodore Metzler

October 28, 1989 - July 2, 2024

Isaac Theodore Metzler, born on October 28, 1989, tragically passed away surrounded by family on July 2, 2024, due to heart failure during his recent attempt at sobriety.

From a young age, Isaac possessed a generous spirit, enjoying finding ways to help people and make others happy. His own greatest happiness came from spending time with his beloved son, Isaiah. Together, they enjoyed riding go-karts, opening Pokemon cards, building Legos, working on remote control cars, flying kites, talking on the phone, and dreaming of their future adventures.

Besides spending time with his son, Isaac's passion was discovering and selling common and unusual items. His extensive knowledge of specialized technical parts, mechanical components, and unique collectibles propelled him into a successful career on Ebay.

Additionally, Isaac held a deep faith in God throughout his life which sustained him through many struggles. He was a loyal son, brother, and father who demonstrated unwavering love and devotion to his family and loved ones.

Isaac will be dearly missed and forever remembered by his son, Isaiah; his mother, Debra; his brother, Adam, and wife, Liss; his father, Paul, and wife, Marta; and his sister, Emelia.

The family will be honoring Isaac's memory and his impact on their lives privately. Condolences and memories will be much appreciated and can be added on the tribute wall below.

Tribute Wall

KV

“ My heart is hurting for the loss of Isaac. I would never have imagined we both would lose our sons so young. Peter and Isaac lost touch over time , but now they will spend eternal friendship together with our Lord. I have many memories of them growing up . My prayers are with you all. May Jesus bring you the same comfort I received after losing Peter.

Remembering dear Isaac, a spark of joy, especially during our beach trip to Assateague. His laughter and energy will forever be etched in my memory. The news of his passing left a deep sadness in my heart. To Isaac's family, I want you to know that as mothers, we share a bond that transcends boundaries and sorrows. I promise to be there for you, to share your grief, and to lend my support in any way I can. Let's hold onto the beautiful memories of Isaac, and may they comfort us during these challenging times. My heartfelt condolences to you.

karen vance - May 14, 2025 at 10:56 PM

MD

“ Never met Isaac but was a customer of his on eBay. Knew he was a Great Guy just by his manner in the messages he sent and the care he showed. Regret I didn't meet him in this world but look forward to in the better one coming. Made an attempt today to inform his customers what happened to him. He will be sorely missed! If Family needs to get in touch I'm mike_ducote@yahoo.com to help with loose ends. You are in my prayers!

Mike Ducote - July 19, 2024 at 09:43 PM

JB

“ I often struggle with finding the right words for moments like this. Words are never good enough when someone who should still hear, times when life is truly the most unfair. So, I have chosen to share my favorite memory of you. Years ago, during one of the lowest points in my life, I reached out to people from my past, hoping to find solace from those who I felt at the time knew the real me. I needed to hear that I was loved and that everything would eventually be alright. In that vulnerable time, I reached out to you, originally seeking your brother, and unexpectedly found comfort in your kindness. You reminded me of who I was and the potential I still had. I've always cherished that moment, as it came at a time when I felt utterly alone. Thank you for being there. I'm deeply saddened that your life was cut short. I sincerely hope you can find peace now.

To Debbie, a mother should never know the loss and pain you are feeling right now and for that I am so deeply sorry. I hope you can find comfort in the fact that you're not alone in your grief and your son's kindness saved my life that day.

JB - July 19, 2024 at 01:32 PM

DM

*JB I would love to reach out to you to tell you thank you for these kind words. If you see this can you let me know who you are?
debra.metzler@gmail.com*

debra metzler - August 01, 2024 at 10:37 AM

RF

“Debbie, please know that I am at this moment, lifting you in prayer, asking God to surround you with His love and give you peace and comfort. I will continue to pray for Isaiah especially that he'll carry the fond memories of his Dad, in his heart always. (When I think of Isaiah, I think of a little guy that my Mom always so enjoyed talking with her on the front steps when you stopped by on your daily walks). My prayers are for Adam and for Liss as well, as I'm sure there is huge 'hole' in their hearts that can never be fully mended. I'm grateful that God allowed Wayne to get to know both of your sons and share his mechanical abilities with them...I like to think of Isaac and Wayne in heaven right now, pondering some automobile related matter. I so look forward to the day when we are all reunited with our loved ones, around God's throne. Until then, I am certain God cares very deeply and is strengthening you for each day ahead. May God bless each of you abundantly...With my heart full of love for you and your family, Debbie ...Rachel

RACHEL ANN FLEURY - July 17, 2024 at 08:32 PM

MB

“Sending my deepest condolences to Deb and Isaiah. You were such a loving and supportive mom and raised a beautiful man. I am heartbroken for your brutal loss and I pray God holds you close on your grief journey.

Margot S Brown - July 14, 2024 at 09:09 AM

KH

“Debbie: I am very saddened that you have lost your son. I never met him, but I did meet Isaiah when he was younger, and I remember you talking at CVHS about both of your sons. Isaac was fortunate to have you always as his defender and supporter. May your faith give you support and solace. Karen Hukari

Karen Hukari - July 13, 2024 at 05:06 PM

BP

“I am so terribly sad and sorry to hear this news, Deb. My heart goes out to you and your family. My prayers are with you all.

Ben Pease - July 13, 2024 at 04:57 PM

LV

“I am deeply saddened that my nephew Isaac is no longer with us. Truly I am heart-broken for the profound grief that Isaiah, Debbie, Paul and Adam are experiencing. Isaac had a beautiful way of making every person he encountered feel accepted and welcomed, and he always greeted us with a warm smile. He was highly creative and artistically gifted, and used his intuitive mechanical abilities to many good ends. One of my fondest memories (and I have a photo I snapped to remind me of this) is when he attended a school Christmas program involving his young son, Isaiah. Personally, I could not take my eyes off of Isaac because he just beamed with love when he watched or held this precious child. I did not have a chance to say goodbye to Isaac in this lifetime, but I look forward to embracing him when I too am ushered by the angels into God's glorious Kingdom.

Lynn Vandermey - July 13, 2024 at 10:49 AM

HB

“ Knowing him for years and watching him grow into a man, I must say Isaac was a sweet loving person. His loss is tragic and sadly, he will never know how much he will be missed. My prayers are for you Debbie and all the family.

Helen Ballou - July 12, 2024 at 02:58 PM

LC

“ Debbie, My heart is broken for you. I am so sorry for your unimaginable loss. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.
Lisa Clune

Lisa Clune - July 12, 2024 at 08:55 AM

CF

“ Our deepest condolences go to you Debbie, Adam, Isaiah and the family. Isaac was a shining light. He had an infectious smile and a wonderful spirt. He will be missed by all that loved him. I hope your faith and fond memories will help you through this time.

Colavito Family - July 10, 2024 at 07:10 PM

JA

“ Prayers and hugs,Debbie and family, will always remember Isaac and Bret's times together in Lake Jackson. Take care, Janet and Dan Bickham janetbickham - July 10, 2024 at 12:38 PM

AN

“ Debbie, I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with you and your family during this sad time. I hope your faith can help you find some solace and peace as you grieve.

Amy Nave - July 10, 2024 at 11:54 AM

SF

“ When Isaac was a little boy, I had the privilege of being one of his Sunday School teachers. I remember him clearly, a well-mannered child with a handsome appearance. In the past year, I had the blessing of serving Isaac Communion which was a delight to my heart. Now, I have the privilege of knowing Isaac's son, Isaiah, a bright and well-mannered young man who can stand before the church reading the Word of God well and with conviction. There is no doubt that God has great things planned for Isaac's son.

With my Love & Prayers, Sandra Fox

Sandra Fox - July 10, 2024 at 11:45 AM

KS

“ Thinking of you, sweet Deb, as you navigate this unimaginable loss. He sounds like an amazing, kind soul. Sending lots of love for your family to begin healing.

Katie Salzman - July 09, 2024 at 06:25 PM

BM

“ Our Prayers are with your family at this time.

Brandie Miller - July 09, 2024 at 12:58 PM

CR

“ So sorry to hear this about Isaac I remember him being a student on my bus. My prayers are with the family.

Carrie Riley - July 09, 2024 at 10:16 AM

GB

“ So many years of time spent. It feels weird. The fun this guy was. That talent. The knowledge. The personality he offered to the world was everlasting. The memories live on. Through all these troubled years we passed messages about trucks and more. That ember I cherish. Thank you for the bits of my personality that is you. Your friend, Greg.

Gregory W. Ballou - July 09, 2024 at 09:50 AM

CA

“ I remember Isaac very fondly. He was always so full of life and had a way about him that was infectious. I can't believe he is gone... I will never forget him. For more reasons than I can type. I am sick that he's gone. I will always remember him as the young cool kid from our neighborhood. My condolences to his family.

Candace - July 09, 2024 at 08:56 AM

BB

“ I remember the first time we met in middle school. What started out as a stupid fight turned into one of the best friendships I will ever have. From hanging out everyday during our youth living everyday as if it were our last. You helped bring me out of my shyness and helped me be myself regardless of ridicule from others, we always had each others back we were like brothers and even though I had to leave the coast you will remain my best friend.i remember the camping trips and aimlessly chilling at the mall you me and Mike those were some of my fondest memories growing up. There hasn't been a day that's gone by that I haven't thought about you I love you dude I hope you now can rest in peace

Bret Bickham - July 09, 2024 at 12:06 AM