“ Jack was one of a kind. I first met Jack at work about 9 years ago. Over the years jack became more than just a co-worker, he was a friend. I will miss his jokes, his laugh, the impromptu lunches with the team and his smile. Jack always was a person I could talk to about anything, and ALWAYS went the extra mile to help anyone. He always took the time to ask about my family and talked about how much he loved his. June, David and Vicky, my heart breaks for you. I pray God comforts you during this time of incredible loss. Jack will be missed and thought of everyday.

“ Dear Guzdowskis & Family,

Please accept my deepest condolences. I am heartbroken. Having him in my life made a difference, we had so much in common – I will always cherish fond memories of the trips, the laughs, the games, the pranks and even the fights! And yes, 1957 is a vintage year! RIP Jacko. Love, the Wench xox

“ To June, your children, Jimmy, and Janet. You have my whole hearted condolences on the passing of Jack. I know he will be sorely missed. You all in my thoughts and prayers.
Heaven just admitted another angel. Jack is now at peace and would want us all to know that, even though we are the ones who are suffering. Just always remember the good times, as I have when we were all kids. Be strong because I know that's what Jack would want.
In deepest sympathy, Jack's cousin, Susan Panichelli Miller

“ I had the great privilege to work with Jack, and become good friends with him for the past 10 years, and am deeply saddened by his far too-early passing. Jack was a professional whom I learned much from, and who always showed a passion for his career and his family. When Jack and June were out with us, or hosted us at their home, you could just see how close and affectionate they both were with each other. I spent some time with Jack and his children, and he clearly had a very open and good relationship with them. We often talked about family and kid issues, and Jack was unabashedly proud of how he provided everything he possibly could for his children. Jack was a wonderful person with a great sense of humor, and I think all who knew him are better for it.

I worked with Jack for almost 30 years. Jack was more than a co-worker, he was my friend. I have many fond memories; our pressure washing business we had together, Jack helping me paint my bathroom, our white water rafting trip and Jack talking me into riding the roller coaster with him at Kings Dominion. Jack adored his family and always asked me about mine. If I had a problem and needed help, I knew I could count on Jack. I will especially miss hearing "How about them Cowboys" during football season. I will dearly miss my buddy.
