“ I find it very hard to grieve this incredible man! I know beyond a shadow of a doubt where you are right now and I can see you smiling and laughing and praising our Savior. I hurt for your children and grandchildren and all of those who loved you so dearly, including me. Your faith never wavered and you were always such an inspiration to me. Go and receive your reward, your job here is done. I love you and will always remember you most for the light of love and salvation that was always on your face. God bless each of your children and grandchildren.
