“ I just read this, 10/16/2018...I had tried to get in touch with him several times. Jim was my supervisor at work, my mentor, my friend. He and Ella Jo meant a great deal to me. The last time I spoke with him might have been in 2005. My second husband and I were living and traveling in a motor home for six years, then moved to NC for six years then to AZ. So sorry that I didn't talk with him later. He was so proud of Jim and Joey and I knew of the first grandson. Late condolences to the family.

“ We loved Auntie Arlene’s comment about not being able to EDIT this. So true.
Jim and Ella both were so kind and generous to family and friends alike.
Jim was like a second father to our daughter, Dana, when she was attending school in DC. He even took her to purchase her first car.
Jim was extremely perceptive and intelligent and made good decisions.
He always kept in touch.
We will miss his sense of humor, sometimes irreverent like his brother Francis but that is what really cracked us up.
We will miss you Jim and I hope you know how much you were loved.

“ Couldn't resist! He can't edit this. Jim could have strong opinions, overboard at times. He loved his family and would do anything he could to help. Ryan and Evan--hope you know how proud and happy he was to see how well you are doing. To me, the baby, he was extremely thoughtful and kind. Always checking in. I will miss those caring, informative, and most of all entertaining conversation. I will greatly miss you.

Love,
Arlene
