“ So sorry to hear of Jimmy's passing. My family was close to the Bond family when I was young, and still living in Interlaken. My condolences to the family.

“ Margaret & children--My deepest sympathies to you all. I first knew James in the late '60's--early '70's as friends of the Moores. I enjoyed bantering with him about various things & knew how he loved family & children.
God bless--

“ Jason & Family,

I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. Leo Buscaglia

“ I worked at IBM during the same time Jim worked here and we shared lots of hallway conversations about the outdoors and hunting as well as a smattering of work related topics.
My condolences to Jim's entire family.

“ Lord, James I just this minute heard about this...I feel bad I didn't get to say proper goodbyes...We never raised that last toast!

“ We moved into his neighborhood 4 years ago and James introduced himself the very day we unloaded our belongings. He was a man "on fire for the Lord". I am a Christian author and he would periodically visit and share his poems on faith. He was a man of encouragement and inspiration! I know he's in Heaven as he was a true disciple here on earth.

“ Our deepest sympathies go out to the Bond family. We were so sorry to hear this news when we returned from our trip to the Holy Land. We will miss seeing James drive by in his truck every day, always with a smile and a wave. In the summer he would stop by with vegetables from his garden and we would always have a spiritual chat. Our Good Lord called him home to continue his work in heaven.
