“ Mike, Diane, Gene and family, I just wanted to let you know we are so sorry for your loss. Gene just contacted my dad, Bill, to let us know. We always enjoyed visits from Uncle Jim whenever he was traveling near and around Arkansas. He always seemed so comfortable and happy outside. We will miss him and you will all be in our prayers.

“ Granddaddy Jim, was an amazing person. I wasn't blood but he was my adoptive grandfather. He and Grandmommy, loved everyone no matter who they were in the past. Both were honorable and noble people who were willing to help strangers. Everyone who they met, left their presence with a massive smile on his/her face. I was close to Granddaddy, I really was.

As a kid, he always took me into the woods, we would hike, look for frogs, and crayfish. There was this one rock, it was massive. Even now after 22 years, its still remains towering over me in size. He showed me how to climb it. He showed me how to navigate the woods, what to look for if ever lost. I love him, Pat (Grandmommy) Uncle Mike and Jean. And Aunt Diane, my cousins Alex, Linda, Nikki and Sarah. You will always be my family, I love you guys. And Granddaddy, rest in peace. You will be missed.

*You Grandson,
Craig Rowlett*

You may not have been blood, but you and Cari are every bit as much their grandchildren as the ones who are blood! Never doubt that!

“ To the family of James Caine, my brother and I are very sorry for your lose. We knew your family and both your Dad and Mother were wonderful people. They would do anything they could for you and if you were a stranger when you were around either, you wouldn't leave being a stranger. We know how it feels to lose a parent and can relate to what you are going through with your dads passing, just know that he was liked by all, and keep his memories alive by living the life that he instilled in you.
With our deepest sympathy,

Ann Golladay and Carl Payne.

“ When I was younger, he was always larger than life, able to do anything! He was the strong silent type, so when he spoke it was because he had something to say and as a result, people listened. Always good with his hands, everyone came to him with whatever needed fixing and usually left with whatever it was- fixed. He taught us so much by example! His work ethic was if a job was worth doing, it was worth doing right the first time, so you didn't have to do it again. He loved other cultures, especially his Irish heritage, and taught us to do so by sharing stories of his experiences as well as the food that he enjoyed. He shared with everyone his love of the outdoors, but growing fruits and vegetables and sharing with his neighbors. He also began growing trees and donating them to the Arbor Day Foundation.

He was an old-fashioned, southern farmer and he will be sorely missed!

Love you, dad!

Always your little girl,

Diane

Jim will be sorely missed by all who knew him. He was a fine man and I always had a lot of respect for him and your mother. I still have and treasure the mug tree he made for me and the napkin holder. I described what I wanted and the next thing I knew he brought them over without telling me before hand that he was making them. I also still have the wooden "dog" he helped Allenna make when they were babysitting her for me. I loved your Dad, your mom, the whole family. They are my longest knowing and dearest friends. He was a treasure trove of information about so many subjects. We will miss you, Jim. Bonnie and Jim Seitz

Your Dad has been part of my life for a very long time also your Mom. We became neighbors many, many years ago my children, grandchildren and my great grandchildren got to know him well! He took them on journeys through the woods explaining the types of trees and wild flowers that where there in the BACK YARD. As a adult myself I was never sure what kinds of flowers that would bloom in my flower beds because your Dad planted many when I wasn't looking haha !! But he would tell me what they were when they bloomed, which worked for me! He would come to our cherry tree and pick then make me a pieMy heart goes out to you and your brothers and the rest of the family. He will be truly missed by every one that knew him from the DIRT road. Take care of each other I'm sure that would be what he would have wanted for all of you!Prayers go to all of you. Mr. Caine was my sister's neighbor and a dear friend to them all. He was an amazing person--who else could go out into the woods and return with a native tobacco plant? (No, not the cultivated kind.....) He will be very much missed by all who knew him...and everybody who did, loved him. I feel fortunate to have known him.

*Jim was a dear friend to Bob and I and an extra dad to our children. He was always bringing us something whether flowers seeds honey .or trees He was always ready to help his neighbors. He loved entering his flowers and jarred fruits and vegetables in the local fair He played an excellent part in the Easter passion play at his church. Everyone who new him loved him. Tell Pat we miss her and we"ll Miss you greatly
