“ Just heard the terrible news about JB at Tims yesterday! I didn't know him well and only chatted with him a handful of times but I liked him right away!! What a kind soul and gentle giant. He was certainly one of the nicest people I've met since moving to Va six years ago. RIP big guy and thanks for being a kind and caring person, the world needs many more like you! Kelly Messett

“ "JB" was a gentle giant who lit up a room with his incredible smile. The world is a better place because of his presence. A lot of hearts broke after hearing of his passing. May God smile on those left behind.

“ Where do I begin.... from making us carry your book bags as I was in 1st grade so you could shove me and jessie in the honeysuckle bush. To turning all the lights out in the den for you and Chad to sneak in and scare us until we cried. JB you were the big brother any girl would die for. The loving, caring, nurturing, jokester mentality you had was amazing. You didn't let anyone go through their day upset. you made sure they had a smile on their face while you were around. We will tell stories every day to let your memories live on. Like.... that wonderful chef grilled cheese you made me not long ago and in your show-off fancy flipping of it, it flew to the ground. You picked it up, blew on it, set it on my plate and said "it be aight, just eat it von fart". Your memory will live on through every single on of us. Especially your niece and nephew who just adored Uncle JB. Gone, but never forgotten. Until we meet again. I love you. Kiss your mom for us!
