“ I am a friend of Jim (2) from our train days. I love Jim as a brother and am saddened for you and your family. If your dad was half the man you are, and from what I have read, he was, then he will be sorely missed by all of you. May God comfort you in your loss and in the days ahead. Love, Linda

Linda Mock - August 04, 2017 at 02:30 PM

Thanks Linda. I love you too! My dad was the kind of man that I can only aspire to be. He was not really a big man, but he sure did leave some big shoes to fill. I only hope that I can measure up to him, or at least come close. He will be missed (he already is). I thank you for expressing your love and hope of comfort. Love, Jim “ Grew up with Jim and have many happy memories since we lived in a small town we did most things with the rest of our gang whether it be school or church activities. Jim was always a gentleman!! Condolences to the family.

Berneeda Reed Moses - August 04, 2017 at 11:06 AM

Thanks Berneeda! I'd love to hear if you have any stories from those days to share! Dad remained a gentleman to the very end, and ALWAYS put his family first.
