

James Richard Good

November 15, 1935 - January 8, 2022

James Richard Good (86), of Manassas Virginia passed away on January 8, 2022, after months of failing health. He died peacefully in his home surrounded by his family.

James was born on November 15, 1935, in Parsons, WV where he lived until he was 16, when his grandfather died, and his family moved to the farm near Jenningsston.

After graduating from Parsons High School in 1953, he moved to Washington, DC, working several jobs until finding employment with the FBI. In 1955 James married his high school sweetheart, Bonnie Smith and lived in Arlington, VA until ~ 1960 when they moved to Manassas with their two daughters. He commuted to DC working for the federal government for 32 years as a computer programmer until he retired in 1986 and then continued working in construction & golf course maintenance for several more years.

He was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather.

James could fix almost anything “Handyman Extraordinaire”. He loved helping neighbors & friends, and spending time with his family. He was a lifelong member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, and his faith was important in his life. He enjoyed hunting, camping, traveling & golf.

He is preceded in death by his parents, William Granville & Nell Marie (Cross) Good; three brothers, Don (Annie), Harry and Ron, and one brother-in-law Doral Carr.

James is survived by his loving wife, Bonnie Good; children, Susan Pritt (Mark) and Carol Shirley (Dave), two sisters June Ann Carr and Wanda Shelley (Carroll), one brother, Roger Good (Rose) and one sister-in-law, Nancy Good.

He was the proud grandfather "Papa" to Jason (Stephanie), Jennifer (Joel), Jessica (Charles), Justin (Nicole), Sara (Kelly) and Joshua (Tina). He cherished his great-grandchildren, Averie, Allison, Brady, Olivia, Andrew, Landrie, Julia, Rachel, Carter, and Robin.

All are welcome for visitation to take place at Pierce Funeral Home (9609 Center St., Manassas, Virginia 20110) on Wednesday, January 19, 2022, from 6:00 – 8:30 PM.

The funeral service will be held at Pierce Funeral Home on Thursday, January 20, 2022, at 12:30 PM. Interment to follow at Stonewall Memory Gardens.

The family requests that masks be worn to help protect vulnerable guests.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Mark's United Methodist Church (7803 Well Street, Manassas, VA 20111) or the Alzheimer's Association (225 N. Michigan Ave. Floor 17, Chicago, IL 60601).

“ Mr. Jim was a very special man. His family has been tied to mine, through St. Mark’s for most of my life. I am blessed to have known and loved such a kind, fatherly and Godly man. I will forever remember those hugs and words of encouragement. My deepest condolences for Bonnie, Carol and Susie (and their respective families). Mr. Jim was much loved and will be greatly missed. Layne also sends her love and condolences.

James has delivered a wonderful message of inspiration and encouragement on staying on the straight and narrow road that leads to Heaven versus all the obstacles that lead down that slippery slope to Hell. I did not realize what a truly Christian person he was until I listened to this recording. He was truly one of God's angels and has gone Home to take his place at the throne of God.

“ i will always remember the good times, sitting on Loutie's porch on the Farm, with James, Bonnie, Alan and others talking about days gone by, loved ones who have past, arguing about politics and just relaxing after a good meal. Will miss you James (never did get in that round of golf). Audrey Nelson
