“ The loss of Jamie has left a large void in the Harvey family. We know he is with God and is in a better place, but we will always miss him. Jamie was a happy child, intelligent and always inquisitive about everything; traits that stayed with him his entire life. His zest for learning about everything and having to experience everything got him into many problems during his younger years but the last several years he had matured into a young man who was focused on what he wanted to do with his life. We know he is with God and we wait for the time when we will all be together again.

“ We laughed together. We cried together. We shared both good and bad times. I was able to help guide you as you asked Jesus to be your Savior, and later be baptized. With you, I experienced the birth of my first grandchild and the growth and joy of three precious little girls. I told you I would treat you as I did my other two sons. I hope you knew, without a shadow of a doubt, that you were loved, a definite part of the Talley family. I loved you and will miss you, my son in law!
