“ We are sorry to just learn of Jim's passing. We worked together in Scouting in the 80s and had a great time. I used to run into him at All Saints over the years as well and he always remembered us and our boys with a ready smile. We know you will miss him. We will keep you all in our thoughts and prayers. May our Lord bless each of you, keep you in the palm of His hand and grant you His peace.

“ "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints"(Psalm 116:15). It was a blessing for me to have known Jim at VMI. It's great to know that death, nor anything else in all creation, can separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord (John 8:37-39). May our Lord comfort all of you now, and forevermore. Bennie Dyer '65

“ I was Jim's roommate for a year at VMI . I have seen him at reunions and at the Institue dinner last fall. I am sorry that I have not kept up with him better but I I remember him as both kind and smart. We had that bond of roommates and tried to catch up when we saw each other. I am so sorry that he died so early as these should be the best years of our lives..

“ I was so very sorry to hear the sad news about Jim. Although I did not know him that well, except to say hi and wave, we have been neighbors for almost 30 years (I'm in house #5, in the middle of the court). We did run into each other all the time, usually at Giant Food. He was such a nice man, always with a ready smile. I know what a difficult time this is for his loved ones, as I lost my husband 8 years ago. My sincere condolences. Cookie Waldron

“ They say a man's legacy is determined by his accomplishments, his good deeds and most of all the memories he made with loved ones. If that's true, Jim's legacy will live on forever. He will be missed.

“ In my time remodeling homes, Jim was the first client I had on Pruett Place, Manassas. Such a kind and gentle man who just wanted a Mercedes Benz until he got one. He was a car man like me and was finally happy with a Subaru. Always trusting and someone I could always call a friend. I stopped to talk with him sometimes after I started in real estate sales and would see him at the market. I will miss his gentle nature and friendly smile. God bless and keep him now that he is at rest. I will be thinking of you my friend.

“ I'm gonna really miss you Mr. Hogler. I will miss seeing you when you would bring your vehicle in for maintenance work or just when you would stop by to say hello. I'm gonna miss talking to you about the caps. It is a sport that we would just sit down and discuss the game. I treasure those moments and so glad that we became friends. You will truly be missed and I will think of you often my friend. Rest in peace Mr. Hogler.....

“ Jim was so much more than a neighbor for 16 years . He was part of our family. The emergency contact for my two boys for all these years. He picked them up from school when they were sick and we couldn't get there. He talked to them as they grew and always took a genuine interest in everything they were doing.. He was a true friend always quick to help out and offer anything he had . I will miss his true friendship the most . We talked often and he always bragged about his son and how proud of him he was . We shared a deep pride in our children. In an era where most neighbors barely wave to each other's these days we were lucky to live next door to such a kind and giving man who became another Uncle to my two boys. God bless you Jim and although I will miss our talks but I know I've gained another guardian angel . 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏
