“ I'm not going to say goodbye to you Jimmy cause when you passed a little piece of me went with you. You were a true friend. I will never forget you.... here's a poem I found .

The moment that you died my heart was torn in two, one side filled with heartache the other died with you.

I often lie awake at night, when the world is fast asleep and taking a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheeks.

Remembering you is easy I do it everyday but missing you is a heartache that never goes away

Love you brother.... RIP my friend

“ Uncle Jim, no we weren't blood related but that's what it felt like growing up. I have nothing but great memories with Jim, my father and his son Derek who is like a little brother to me. We would all go fishing at Lake Anna, go swimming in My Pappaws pool next door, dad built a zip line in our back yard that Derek and I loved to use while Jim and dad would watch us play. Jim was so kind and gentle natured towards my first dog Max, and Max let Jim put him on the Jetski at the Lake and ride around he was so comfortable with Jim. Jim and dad loved to love life to the fullest and they were the life of parties we would have.

The reason why I put salsa on my eggs is because of Jim first doing it.

There were no dull moments with Uncle Jim whatsoever, we even protested and striked together at UPS and when someone tried to continue work to take our Dad's jobs we all yelled "SCAB!". We were all in tune together and wherever we were Jim was there with us. Thank you for being there when I was growing up Uncle Jim, I love you and miss you dearly.

“ We are extremely sorry for the loss of Jim who was a wonderful person!!! Fred & I had the privilege of Jim coming over to visit our son, Gary, Connie, Kristen and Bart next door. When he visited them, he would come over and visited us around our family pool on week-ends. He had his son, Derek with him many times. Derek was a very small child and Jim would put him on a blanket in our Family Room for his evening naps. Jim will certainly will be missed. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers during this time of great loss.

“ My heart is broken. He was my best friend & the very best person I have ever known. I am so grateful to have had him in my life. I don't have a single good memory from the last 10+ years that he wasn't a big part of! I still can't believe he's gone 🥺💔

I love you so very much & I will miss you forever. May you rest in peace my dear sweet friend...
