“ Jimmy was my little brother. When we were little we were very close and even shared a bed in the tiny two-bedroom apartment where we lived in Bedford, PA. When we were in elementary school, we watched Romper Room together and did the exercises and sang the songs together. We even got a Good-DoBee message from Miss Jean for our good behavior and we carried her message of doing the right thing into the rest of our lives. Jimmy's greatest gift to the world was being an amazing father. His children will be the next generation to carry that message forward. As our brother Eddie, would say, "I love you, man!"
