

James Tracy Magwood

December 30, 1959 - November 29, 2017

James Tracy Magwood Sr. was affectionately known to everyone as Tracy. He was the son of the late Archie and Joemimer Magwood. He was born on December 30, 1959 in Charleston, South Carolina.

Tracy was educated in Charleston County Public Schools. He played varsity football all 4 years in high school and retired his jersey number "75", when he graduated from Middleton High School in 1979. Tracy went into the US Air Force and he became a staff sergeant where he served from, 1980 to 1986. He worked at United Airlines from 1987, until he retired in 2016 due to illness. Tracy married his high school sweetheart, Yvette, January 26, 1985. They were blessed with wonderful children. James Tracy Jr. (JT), Trinnette, Jarell (preceded in death), Inghish, Nicolette, Thomas Masterson, and Courtney Parker. He assisted in nurturing his nephew, Brandon Singletary.

Tracy was so full of life, everyone describes him as sociable, kind, sweet, gentle, protective, wise, compassionate, and extremely loving to all who lives he touched. He would always make sure to embrace with hugs, handshakes, and kisses. He was extremely family oriented, who loved and adored his wife, children, family and friends unconditional.

Tracy accept the Lord in his life at an early age, and trusted the Lord to guide him through his life's journey.

On November 29, 2017 at 12:55 PM, the Lord called Tracy home from battling a long-extended period of illness and gave him peace.

“ The tears in my eyes I can wipe away, but the ache in my heart will always remain with me. Words seem inadequate to express the sadness I feel about your death. I love and will miss everything about you my wonderful friend.

To the family: While there is no way I can feel your pain, I do feel your loss as I have known Tracy for many years. Peace and love to you and your family during this sorrowful time.

“The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt with the heart.” – Helen Keller
