“ Dearest Dad,

I know that you are looking down on us from heaven, and see the shock and pain that we are experiencing since the great Lord Jesus Christ opened his arms to receive you.

But, being the wise man that you are, you have the knowledge that we will soon find peace once we realize that there is life after death, and the Northcutts will be together again in the beautiful gardens of heaven.

Until then, all we can do is mourn and reminisce our moments together.

We had great times together and I have wonderful memories that I will always treasure. I can look at all of the photographs of our years together and remember with great fondness, the joy and happiness that we shared during our lives together.

To me, it all comes down to the fact that you weren't my father "in law", but my "Dad", and I will greatly miss you.

I love you so much, (always have, always will) and know that you loved me too.

Thank you for being so wonderful to me, and allowing me the honor of being your daughter.

Enjoy the beauty and greatest of being with our Lord Jesus Christ, and rest in peace knowing that we will take care of Mom on your behalf. We look forward to seeing you again.

*Love Always,
Your Daughter,
Debbie*

“ Hi Grandpa. It hasn't hit me yet that your gone, even though I feel like I could never stop crying. We all miss you a lot but we know that your in a better place without pain or fear. I know that your watching over all of us and I promise to help take care of Grandma as well as you did. It's weird to not have you around. I never thought that one day you'd be gone so soon. I love you Grandpa. Save a seat for me in heaven. xoxo

“ My deepest sympathies on the loss of Uncle Jim. Thanks for letting me participate in your funeral as a pallbearer. I'll always remember the family vacations in upper Michigan and other places and the many nights we shared as a family playing cards.
