“ Dear Fran!

It was so good to talk to you today.

Instead I consoling you it was very comforting to me too;

and I thank you that you took the time to talk to me about it all.

Needless to say,

We were devastated to hear

That our good friend Jim had passed on so unexpectedly

What a shock for you that must be!

We are with you in our thoughts and prayers

And we wish you strength to go through these dramatic times in your life!

Jim will live on in our memories!

And only a person that is forgotten is completely and really dead.

Jim will never be!

Too many lives he has touched,

Too many friends he has made,

And too loving a family, actually families,

He has cherished and treasured!

He can never be forgotten

We hope to be able to see you sometime soon.

If not, be assured that we will stay in touch

via phone, facebook and e-mail

Grieving with you

In loving memory of my step father James Lawrence Patterson Major US Army Retired born Sept. 24, 1935-Oct 5, 2014 I have admiration for the life he lived. I truly do not know anyone like him. His attitude and ability to look at events and situations, do what he could to make a difference, accept what he was not able to change, always looking to the future and pushed forward through whatever challenges he faced. He was a brave and honorable man on and off the battle field.

He was a kind, thoughtful, big teddy bear to me when I needed him the most. I will miss him dearly and treasure the things he shared and said to me. It is an honor to have called Papa Jim my step father and I am forever grateful for the love he shared with my mom and the influence he had on the lives of me, my children and his family. He was a great man! I will miss him dearly and look to the day that I get to see his warm smile again, open arms and feel his gentle embrace to greet us when we join him. I love you Papa!

“ Written by Robin Crabtree

Jim was preceded in death by his son, Jeffrey L. Patterson, and his brother Stephen Patterson. He leaves his wife Fran, his sister Anne, 7 children, his 16 grandchildren, his 6 great-grandchildren and countless good friends to remember him.

Jim was a man of many talents and accomplishments. Jim's father was a construction superintendent and he remembered his early life fondly spent following his father to construction sites throughout the south living in boarding houses. Jim was known as "little boss" as his father insisted on bringing him to the job site from a young age. At 13, Jim was enrolled in Georgia Military College where he graduated high school in 1953 and attended college until 1955. Jim completed all ROTC requirements while there. On December 16, 1955, Jim enlisted in the Army as a Private E-1. His first duty station was Fort Jackson, Columbia SC where he received Basic Training and was a Trainee Platoon Sergeant. Jim received many distinctions during his early Army career including being rated the "best/fastest" at computing firing data for atomic rounds from the new 280mm atomic cannon artillery battalion and WACOM Soldier of the Week.

In March, 1957, his battalion was assigned to Germany where they successfully tested the big guns. While there, Jim was selected as a WACOM Soldier of the Week August 7, 1957. In October, 1957, Jim entered Officer Candidate School at Ft. Sill, OK. In March, 1958 Officer Candidate Patterson was awarded the first Gunner's Trophy for the highest academic average in Gunnery. In April, 1958, Jim was graduated and commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant.

In February, 1959, Jim married Margaret Harkins. Jim served in Korea from 1960-61 as a 1st Lieutenant. Jim, Margaret and their then four children, Jeff, Jamie, Robin and Lance, moved to Germany from 1963-1966.

Captain Patterson served in the Republic of Vietnam from 1967-1968 in the 5th Battalion, 2nd Artillery in War Zones C and D and near Saigon during the TET offensive. He was awarded the Bronze Star, the Air Medal, the Good Conduct Medal, the Vietnam

Campaign Medal and Vietnam Service Medal.

Jim's fifth child, Patrick, was born in October 1967.

Upon his return, Major Patterson was assigned to Fort Sill, OK as an instructor in the Artillery Tactics Division. Later assignments included the Army National Guard in Aiken, SC, Field Artillery Instructor in Saudi Arabia and Race Relations Officer in Ft. Myers, VA. Jim retired from the Army in December 1976. In 2010, Jim received the St. Barbara Medal for his achievements in artillery. After retirement, Jim tried his hand at Real Estate, restaurant management and teaching HS math, all of which he enjoyed. Jim married Frances McGrath in July 1980 and gained two daughters, Paige and Kellie. Jim was involved with the Elks and served as Exalted Ruler.

Jim loved sports. He coached his sons in Little League football and baseball. He decided in 1962 while stationed at Ft. Bliss in El Paso, TX that he was a Dallas Cowboys fan and remained loyal to that team in the face of many years here in the Redskins territory. He used his barbed-wire wit against many a Fantasy Football opponent including his children who were his league mates. Jim also loved to travel on cruises to far-off places and he enjoyed playing golf.

For the past several years, Jim and Fran have wintered in Vero Beach, FL.

Jim was a happy man.

October 6 at 9:26am ·

Today, I am a grateful daughter who is so proud of the man who was my father. James Lawrence Patterson, my Dad, went to sleep Saturday night and entered into a well-earned rest, after spending the evening at dinner with friends and his loving wife of 34 years, Fran.

We all hope to live our lives with meaning and there is grace in the biggest and the smallest deeds. My father hoped to be brave and he was. Many who walk this earth today are here because of his deeds. He was fortunate to meet one man, among many, who's life he saved in Vietnam. Dad never spoke of his service there when we were growing up. But, he recently related one story. A company of American soldiers was pinned in on a mountainside by Viet Cong and about to be over run. Dad and his men were called in for fire power, but he couldn't see where to fire in the heavy jungle. So he positioned his dusters in place and had someone take him up in a helicopter to hover over the mountain side and allow him to radio in coordinates to his to men to fire at the advancing enemy. He was in plain sight and risked being shot down, but he kept at it until the company was safe. He recently chanced to meet one of the men who was saved on the mountain that day and they put two and two together until they realized their connection. This was what prompted my Dad to finally tell us something of his service there. But, he was more than a soldier. Dad got a book of Bedtime Stories while he was away, taped himself reading the book and sent it all back home to my Mom to play for us 5 kids every night. He said he encouraged his men to do the same. It's the very same book that I have somehow in my possession after so many years and moves, and the one that I read to my five-year-old now. I am a blessed daughter. And I am so grateful that my father was blessed to leave this world with the grace, honor and dignity he deserved. I'm really going to miss him! He was a great man.

*I was awakened today to the sound of the phone and the news of the passing of my stepfather, Jim (Papa Jim to most of us). I'm in shock, but thinking of how fortunate I was to have a step father like him, thankful that he loved my mother so much, and for the kindness he gave to me and my children. We will miss you. RIP
Papa Jim*

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Mr. Patterson. He was one of my most favorite customers, and I will miss him dearly. He always came into the post office with a smile no matter how he was feeling. I will miss our conversations about the daily news in pro football, and all the times we lamented about his beloved Cowboys and my Redskins on Monday afternoons. Mr Patterson was a genuinely nice person, and I am thankful beyond words that I had the opportunity to know him.

“ Jimmy is my brother from another mother. My life has been blessed by his friendship and the family he created. He is a brave warrior who served his country by putting himself in harm's way. He loved life and refused to be unhappy. We lost him no Earth but his memory will live forever in our minds.
