“ Sherrie and Jamie rented our basement when I was about 11/12. I remember a happy, adorable fun kid! I babysat him some-poor kid! I'll never forget that blonde hair, cherub cheeks and smile. So cute. A nice kid with a nice momma. My deepest condolences to Sherrie the entire family

“ I remember seeing Jamie being born and he was smiling the very first hour and he always carried that smile throughout life. He loved laying on the floor next to his first dog, Chico, as a baby and that dog guarded him like he was the most important thing in the house. Jamie was always the most pleasure i experienced as a father.
