“ I am very sorry to hear about Jane's passing. Although I never got to know her, I was a very good friend of Terry. We grew up together in Utica, attended the same grammar and High Schools, and lived on the same street (Tarbell Terrace), just two houses apart. My sincere sympathy for your loss.

“ I met your mom through Ann Johnson and since I was a native of Utica, NY I connected with your dad also. So sorry to read of her death but now she is reunited with your dad and is resting peacefully. The day she was hit by the car in Manassas was the same day my mom died so I always connected the two together.

My sincere sympathy to all.

“ I'm so very sorry to hear of Jane's passing. She was such a sweet person with a terrific sense of humor. I have so many fond memories of working with her at R.C. Haydon Elementary School. I know Jane hadn't been well in recent years, and I had been keeping her in my prayers. I will continue to do so, along with your entire family.
