

Jane Earman Taylor

April 3, 1932 - November 29, 2018

JANE EARMAN TAYLOR (age 86) on November 29, 2018, Jane passed away peacefully at her daughter's home in Marshall, Virginia surrounded by loved ones.

Jane was married for over 56 years to William Stuart Taylor who preceded her in death in 2011. It was a marriage of enduring love and an example to all who knew them.

Jane is survived by her daughters Frances Taylor Purkert (William); Jane Wellington Taylor (Glen Sanford); Natalie Taylor Zink (William); Mary Wyatt Taylor; Marcie King Wolff (Richard); and, Susan Beryl Taylor. She was beloved by her twelve grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

She was born April 3, 1932 in Harrisonburg, Virginia to Mr. and Mrs. David Wampler Earman (Frances Clyde Overlock). She graduated from Stuart Hall in Staunton in 1950 and Wellesley College in 1954. Although she moved away from the Shenandoah Valley after her marriage, she remained very close to her childhood friends.

Jane was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She enjoyed travel, wrote the most wonderful notes, loved her coffee (very hot!), and reveled in any occasion to be with her family. She had a deep affection for her church families at The Old Presbyterian Meeting House and later at Providence Presbyterian Church. Jane also enjoyed her membership in the National Society of the Colonial Dames of America.

Jane will always be remembered for her ready smile, infectious good humor, kindness toward rescue animals, love of reading and movies and undaunting positive outlook. Her legacy of love is deep and wide, and along with her husband, Bill's, enriches all who knew her.

A memorial service will be held at Providence Presbyterian Church, Fairfax, Virginia on Saturday, January 5, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. There will be a private burial at Quantico National Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family requests a donation be made to The Humane Society of The United States or TeachHaiti, P.O. Box 1173, Detroit Lakes, MN 56502.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

JAN 5. 11:00 AM (ET)

Providence Presbyterian Church
9019 Little River Turnpike
Fairfax, VA 22031