“ Janet is a rare pearl for sure. Her daughter Andrea and I have been best friends for over 40 years. Janet, or Mum-Janet as I called her was always welcoming. She was also a fantastic cook!!! Andrea and I often visited each other either after school, and especially on the weekends. One year, my husband Michael, our then 18 month old son Matthew, and I came up from North Carolina to visit Andrea for her 29th Birthday at their home in Virginia. I told Mum-Janet to keep it a secret having told Andrea that I just couldn't make it. I called with the dates we were coming up etc. We spoke in secret for a few weeks before the actual date. When I arrived at their house with my family MJ welcomed us at the front door because Andrea was in their little office at the side door and the surprise wouldn't have had the same impact. She told me where Andrea was, so Mi,e and Matthew stayed in the front room with Mum-Janet, while I tiptoed to the den at the back of the house. As i'm approaching, Andrea asks her mother who was at the front door. So I said why don't you turn around and look Dear one!!! Years later, Michael, our three boys, and I went to Andrea's and Dennis's wedding, and after that, their BBQ a few years later. They had a friend DJ for them.. The song Old Time Rock and Roll by Bob Seger came on and MJ wanted to dance, Pa-Frank, and everyone's husband's my husband included, all went to do some target shooting as I remember it at a nearby neighbor's. I asked Mum-Janet if she wanted to dance. She accepted, and we boogied to OTRR. What a blast!!!! MJ loved me like a second daughter., and I loved her like a second mother. I will always remember the special bond that we had. God bless you sweetheart. I love you.

“ To Janet’s family, please accept my sympathy and may Christ our Lord comfort you and grant you His healing blessings each day. My memory of Janet is the day she and Frank got married. I was leaving to go to Baltimore to work since I had just graduate high school. She spent the night at our home and I was doing her makeup for their special day and plucking her eyebrows, which she would say ouch several times. After her makeup was finished, I did her hair and she dressed, we were ready to leave. Frank picked her up in his car and we all loaded in my mothers car to go to the church at Red House for them to marry. In my mom’s car, beside her, were my brother Dave who drove, Karen Becker, Allen Hanline and myself. So Frank and Janet had a carload to witness their nuptials! After that, they went their way and we went to Baltimore. We did have a special day attending their wedding and seeing them off! God is so very good, that I have this special memory of their special day! God bless and keep you all in His loving arms! Love in Christ Jesus our Comforter,
