“ My condolences on the tragic loss of Jason, I wish to share comfort from the Bible at this terribly sad time. The Bible teaches that one day in the near future our Creator, Jehovah God, by means of the ransom sacrifice of his son, Jesus, will reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions that will be filled with peace, happiness, and perfect health for everyone.. These texts are found at John 5:28,29; Psalm 37:9-11,29; in your Bible. You can find much Bible-based comfort to be found at the website jw.org

“ I had the pleasure of working with Jason at Country Chevrolet in Warrenton. He always had a ready smile and was there to give you a laugh when you needed it. He always brought the boys and Jennifer into my office to visit whenever they would stop in to visit him. I adore this family and I mourn along with them at their loss.

Rest in peace my friend...you will be missed

“ It was a true blessing to meet Jennifer and Jason shortly after moving to Virginia. Not only did she introduce me to Premier, but Jason was so open and kind to my whole family. It was so evident he lived for his family, from supporting Jen's business, to driving the kids on their hayrides. James and I quickly called Jason our friend and are deeply saddened at this loss. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Jen, Ian, and Noah.

“ Sorry to hear of the loss of such a young man... a son, husband, and father. I met Jason when his son Ian was in my PK class and I do know that he was adored by his family. His boys would tell me fun stories in class all the time. I was also able to enjoy a very nice weekend in Philadelphia with Jason and Jen for Premier. Jason was the only man that went with a large group of women to support Jen and all of her accomplishments. My thoughts and prayers are going out to Jen, Ian, Noah, and the rest of the Ayers family. May God give you all strength and comfort during this difficult time.

“ Jason's passing has had a tremendous effect of me. He has been a friend on mine since we were kids. We havent talked in a long time, but were friends on Facebook (one of the main reasons why I love Facebook) and there was never a moment that I thought we wouldnt pick up like it was yesterday. My thoughts and prayers are with his wife and children, his parents, grandparents and sisters. The whole family. He's gone to soon and I hate that I can't change that. Jason, you have always been one of my favorites. Love, Suzanne Gardiner-Bearden (OP 95)

“ I can still see this little boy running around his house and his grandparents yard. He was always a happy kid. When he was old enough to drive he would stop by my house to visit me. He was always smiling and always had plenty to say. He has always kept in contact with me even when he had his own family. Thank goodness for Facebook ! God bless you my friend. You will be missed. Love, Kyra
