“ To my little brother, big "el", Jason...you will always have a special place in my heart. You were always giving, loving, generous and fun. May your soul soar as you find peace in your next life. Don't forget to grab hold of Mom, Dad, and the rest of the family who are there waiting with open arms. All my love to Betty and your family. May you find peace during this very difficult time. Hugs to all.

“ My family lived next door to the Caton’s on Burrell Rd in the 70s-early 80s. I lost touch with Jason and your family after my Dad and brother, PJ, moved while I was in college. I have fond memories of the many, many hours PJ and I spent playing with Jason as kids. I will always remember the nickname he gave me...”Granny Tin Grin” (because of the silver braces on my teeth in 5th-7th grades). PJ left us in 2009. Hopefully, Jason and PJ are enjoying themselves playing and fishing in Heaven! My sincerest condolences. Dawn (Zucker) Jolly

“ Jeff and Debbie,
My thoughts are with you at this time. Although I didn't have Jason in class at BDHS, I did not know him personally, but I am confident that he was a great person, knowing both of you and your parents. My prayers are with you and his wife.

“ It saddens my heart to hear my friend that you have moved on but I know with out a shadow of a doubt that our paths will cross again in Heaven! Jason you always brought a smile to everyone that I can remember! You were tough when needed on the wrestling team and fun in band class! Good times my friend and classmate of 82'! Praying for the Caton family and friends for peace and understanding 🙏

“ An old high school friend, I have fond memories of working with Jason at the local marina many years ago. Sometimes very early mornings, other times very late nights -- and I recall Jason as a hard worker and someone I always looked forward to teaming with. May the Lord receive Jason's kind soul and give comfort to his earthly family.

“ I pray for God's healing love to rest with Betty in this time of sorrow. Jason always had a kind smile and was ready to help out a neighbor in need. Dad, Mom, and brother Was have welcomed him to heaven with open arms.
