

Jason Wayne Madison

April 27, 1984 - May 22, 2020

On Friday, May 22, 2020, Jason Wayne Madison of Centreville, Virginia suddenly passed away at the age of 36. Jason was born on April 27, 1984 in Fairfax, Virginia. Jason was a loving and devoted father, son, sibling, and caring friend.

He is survived by his father, Gary W. Madison of Oakton, Virginia; his mother, Deborah Caldwell Knoll of Manassas, Virginia; his son, Jayden W. Melencio of Arlington, Virginia; and four siblings of Centreville, Virginia, Melissa C. Madison Pruitt, Stephen A. Madison, Justin D. Madison, and Jessica M. Madison, as well as sibling, Sarah A. Madison of Oakton, Virginia, his girlfriend, Bethany Cox, and many more extended family members and adored by many nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by Ira C. Caldwell Jr., Florence M. Caldwell, Mary L. Ray, and Stanley Ray.

Jason was a very kind soul with a heart as big as the world. If you met him, you were friends and if you needed assistance he was there. His smile would brighten up any place he walked in to and his laugh was contagious. His passion was music. He was a professional level drummer and a great guitar player as well. He will never be forgotten, and his powerful spirit will live on through family and friends and especially his son. He will be missed by many.

A private (immediate family only) service was held on May 27, 2020 at Pierce

Funeral Home in Manassas, Virginia. There will be a celebration of life to honor Jason on Saturday, August 8, 2020, at Park Valley Church, 4500 Waverly Farm Drive, Haymarket, Virginia 20169.

Rest in peace warrior. Your time here was too short. We will always love you and remember you. Until we meet again.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

AUG 8 (ET)

Park Valley Church
4500 Waverly Farm Drive
Haymarket, VA 20169

Tribute Wall

 Gary
Madison

“ It's been about 2 months and 6 days since you left us. I think about you every day and when I do the tears fall. I know the pain I feel will never leave me. I would trade my life in a heart beat for yours if it meant that you would be back for everyone else. I am so proud of the man you grew up to be Jason. Every day I ask myself what I could have done to help you so that you would still be here.

*Rest in peace young warrior
Until we meet again.*

I love you Jason

Dad

Gary Madison - August 08, 2020 at 08:59 PM

 DK

“ Jason. Thank you for being my son and such a kind and caring one. Also. Thank you for giving me my first grandchild. My heart breaks for him and you but I know you will be forever protecting him. I miss your phone calls just to say what are you doing. I would love to see and talk to you again. You were a great sibling and they miss you so much as I do. You were born a big 11 pounds and you were a huge presence always with your bright smile and contagious laugh. Drums were your passion and you were in your element performing on stage. Loved by everyone you met and a friend to all. Love you forever and always. Until we meet again. Your Mom.

Deborah Caldwell Knoll - July 16, 2020 at 08:07 PM

PR

Jason was -IS- one of the most beautiful souls I have ever met. I look forward to seeing him again in Heaven. Congratulations, Debbie, for having such a BEAUTIFUL son!

Patricia Rosell - August 05, 2020 at 05:00 AM

I was listening to Avenged Sevenfold today the song so far away. Hard to believe we met in middle school back in 2000 play music constantly all the way past our high school years and beyond. Sometimes I wonder if we didn't choose the dark paths we walked if we would have been on a huge stage in front of a huge crowd today. I have the many jam sessions still saved and will always cherish those moments. Love you man! Jason and Jason.

Jason Nolet - June 05, 2021 at 11:21 AM

MB

“Margaret Bernier lit a candle in memory of Jason Wayne Madison

Margaret Bernier - July 16, 2020 at 03:51 PM

JM

“ Love you Jason. I will always remember how you cared for me when I was a little kid. I remember you trying to help me get a brush out of my hair that was stuck before the school bus came, watching movies with you, listening to your favorite bands, when you took me to warped tour twice to see the band you got me into and stood in line with me so I could meet Avenged Sevenfold and get their signatures twice! You are the coolest brother and used to make me feel like I was hilarious whenever I said anything even slightly funny. I miss you so much and will never forget you <3

Jessica Madison - July 16, 2020 at 03:40 PM

JM

You had the best laugh, it would make everyone else laugh every time. I really miss hearing your laugh. You were so funny and had the BEST sense of humor. I'm going to miss joking around with you and laughing about stupid stuff. I am so lucky to have had such an amazing big brother.

Jessica Madison - July 16, 2020 at 03:52 PM

DK

Jason. Thank you for being my son and such a kind and caring one. Also. Thank you for giving me my first grandchild. My heart breaks for him and you but I know you will be forever protecting him. I miss your phone calls just to say what are you doing. I would love to see and talk to you again. You were a great sibling and they miss you so much as I do. You were born a big 11 pounds and you were a huge presence always with your bright smile and contagious laugh. Drums were your passion and you were in your element performing on stage. Loved by everyone you met and a friend to all. Love you forever and always. Until we meet again. Your Mom.

Deborah Caldwell Knoll - July 16, 2020 at 07:19 PM

RA

*My Dowg!!! My first drummer & for ever best!! I will be @ your life's honor day, as DJ I will play what your close ones will tribute you with, I will bring that 70's movie we used to analize, study about music business "PHANTOM OF THE PARADISE", but one song I can't take off my mind, that I never thought it would get to me is Don Mclean's "AMERICAN PIE" Because then is when music died... I don't have it, I'm not even doing radio, Im inside frozen But this celebration might warm me up, but I know for sure you will look down to us from heaven.. We miss you!!
Rafael Quintanilla*

Rafael - July 18, 2020 at 01:31 AM