“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am lost for words. Jason was such a kind person and I know he will be missed. You will always have a part of him with you... Jayden. It is unfortunate that jayden will grow up without his father but he now has a wonderful guardian angel. Britney- I know its going to be a long hard road... Hang in there and try to keep your memories of Jason alive.... That way his son will in a way know him when he is older. Again I am terribly sorry for everyone's loss. I was in shock when I heard the news. Feel free to contact me if you need anything. Even if its just to talk. Nikolech2008@gmail.com
