“ I just found that Jean had passed away. She was my first cousin. When I was young my parents were divorced. Jean, more than anyone else through the years was the one person to take the time to talk to me, write me frequently letters, and keep in touch. I was here flower girl in ther wedding. She wore a beautiful white dress with a large can-can slip that made it flare out into a perfect circle. That was the prettiest wedding dress I have ever seen. She frequently visited my mother's house in Partridge, Kansas. The last time I saw was in BelAir, when my husband and I got to visit her. (Edward was also there). I will always cherish my memories with her. She was my friend and most loving cousin.

“ I have so many wonderful memories with my mother. Sitting at the old dark red picnic table with the plastic red and white checkered table cloth eating crabs. She taught me how to shell them to get the meat.

Walking our dog, firecracker down to the old wooden bridge at the end of Plumbtree rd. She laughed and laughed when the dog decided to use my leg as a fire hydrant. I wish at the time I could have laughed with her.

I wish we had more time, I miss you Mom.
