“ *As family. Our mothers ran around in their beautiful youthfulness. I still today look at the black & white photo albums my mother gave me.. Jeannie was an Angel, always had a smile. Big hearted. Arms wide open for even bigger hugs. Welcoming, kind words.. I will always remember Aunt Jeannie's jokes, laughter, & her love for the Redskins.. Our Condolences, Thoughts & Prayers... “ Gosh so many memories of this sweet lady. It's hard to pick one. Guess I have to go back to the first time I met her and the Robey family. My husband, his friend he moved to Florida with, and I, took a trip to Virginia and my home state of West Virginia. Bill being a relative, had stayed with them for a while, when he left home. Jeannie and Sam treated him like one of their own, bought him clothes, and fed him. He intern would watch Susan and Norman, and bring her veggies he would raid the neighbors garden to give her. Any way it must have been 67 or so, since I Remer saying I hadn't been back to W. VA in 7 years, and I moved to Florida with my Mom and Dad in 1960. She didn't know me from Adam and hadn't seen Bill since he was a teen, and she took us in, and right off the bat, I felt like I had known her all my life. She had such a heart warming smile, and a laugh, that would make your heart sing. I knew right then and there we were in the family. And what a family. We left there going to my state, and John Denver had came out with the song Country Roads, and she contacted the DJ, she knew at the radio station there and had them play that song for me, after making sure I would be listening to that station. There will never be another like her. We will never forget you.
