“ Jeanne was the closest I have had to a gramma in years! a few years back I began taking care of her a few days a week on and ofc for close to two years, our families go way back and I grew to love her rather fast! i loved her stubborn spunkey and tell it like it is personality! Her wisdom was always the best! and her advice as well!!! I could tell her anything and not recieve judgement a quality rare in most these days! I will always think of her when I find myself praying to St Anthony for a lost object! which by the way works!!! of course right? after all she insisted it would!!! I honestly could go on longer than the attention span of anyone reading this as I often tend to talk a mile a minute and evidently my writing is similar! Jeanne I will miss you my dear friend!!! and cherish the laughs, the tears, the fun , and the conversation and good company we shared!!!! you were a inspiring lady who never gave up!!! Even as things became harder to do independently you tried anyways!!!!!! Rest Easy my dear Friend!!!! till we meet again!!!!!!
