“ We have lost a gracious, kind, and very funny Southern Lady. In the 30+ years that I have known Jeanette, she always had a kind word, offered every assistance she could, and had a warm smile--often with a wink or something witty to add. In an age where graciousness seems to be waning, another true example has been lost. My heartfelt condolences to all the Wickers and Harrises who shall doubtless feel this loss more than can be imagined. May the grace of the Heavenly Father grant you peace that passes understanding.
