“ Throughout the day, my thoughts keep drifting back to Jeff and I am left with an empty feeling that I try to push away but will be always be there. Jeff and I were good friends in college and lost touch for many years, only to be reconnected when my sister-in-law who worked with Jeff at Oracle made the connection that Jeff and I were fraternity brothers. I was thrilled to get back in touch with Jeff and to get to know JD. They played basketball with me and my sons at our home, went to Wizards games with us, visited us at Dewey Beach, and played Laser tag with us. My sons marveled at Jeff's vast knowledge of seemingly random facts including books, movies, and sports. Jeff could talk comfortably to almost anyone and give them the comfortable sense that they had known him for years. My wife Elisa developed a strong affection for Jeff and constantly reminded me to check up on Jeff when we had not heard from him for a while. It is only slowly sinking in that we won't be hearing from Jeff anymore. My entire family misses him deeply. Jeff may have made some errors in judgement along the way but he was a very good man who cared deeply for friends and family - especially his son JD - and he will never be forgotten by the Cafferky's.

“ Uncle Jerry, Judy, Jon, and JD,

Words are not enough to convey my feelings at a time like this. I am very sorry I cannot be there in person to pay my respects. Please know that each one of you and your family is in my heart and prayers during this difficult time.

Jeff will remain in the hearts of many forever. May beautiful memories provide you with comfort amidst the pain and sorrow.

“ Dear Judy, Jerry, Jon, J.D. and the entire Bridges family:

On behalf of the Fenstermacher family, I just wanted to express my sincere condolences over your loss. I have known Jeff for many years, mostly through my friendship with Jon since our UVA days, but I also had the opportunity to work with Jeff at Oracle for several years.

I will always remember him fondly, as an incredibly bright, and witty person and a solid guy. Jeff was very well liked and respected by all of us that worked with him at Oracle.

I am so sorry, and I wish you comfort in this time of pain and sorrow. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

*Sincerely,
Andy Fenstermacher*
