“ Jeff was a rare breed, where most people are friends by association (work, school, clubs, service, etc) he stayed in touch, responded to messages, and more. As I recall I met Jeff around 1997 at the Help Desk north of Dulles Airport and worked together for almost a decade. For the last 23 years we kept in touch. He served us all in the US Military, and I am glad and proud to call him friend. I just wish we could have had that last promised drink together. I will miss you my friend..... Darrell

“ Jeff was a great friend at work. We fussed at each other like brother and sister, always joking and having fun. He was smart and brilliant at work. He hated praise and was humble to a fault. I will miss him terribly. Work won't be the same without him. Rest in Peace dear friend!
