“ I had the pleasure of having the office next to Jeff's from 2007 to 2010. Jeff and I had many conversations about so many different things. Since 2010 we would occasionally share a walk over lunch or a short conversation in passing in the hall (that turned into something longer). My deepest sympathy for your loss and for the loss to the innumerable people that Jeff's life touched.

“ Jeff, my fellow Jerseyite and Scarley Knight, was a beloved family man who was dedicated to his faith, Colette and his progeny. His calm demeanor and loving grace will be sorely missed. May God rest his soul and warm the hearts of his suffering family. Leslie Weber Hoffman

I had the pleasure of working with Jeff for the past 8 years. I loved his laughter, his endless stories, and his calming presence. I enjoyed many, many wonderful conversations with him about books, music, philosophy, travel...the meaning of life. He had the soul of a poet and was one of the kindest people I've ever met. I will miss him.

Colette, Jeff, Kerri, and all the members of the Sciscilo extended family –

We are heartbroken to hear your sad news. Jeff Sciscilo was a wonderful man and we will always remember him for all his goodness – his dedication to faith and family, his genuine concern for others, his easy going manner, cheerful disposition and, of course, his ready smile. We are thankful for the privilege of having met and known Jeff. Jeff and the entire Sciscilo family were extremely kind to our family and their care of Lindsay for the first five years of her life is beyond measure. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers and we are so fortunate that Jeff left us with such fond memories.

“ I met Jeff at Xavier and considered him a great friend and a great contributor to our newspaper staff. He was also one of the kindest, most gentle men I ever met. We lost touch over the years as young friends do, but I was so thrilled to reconnect with him on Facebook in recent years. His passing comes much, much too soon. I can only say to his family that he touched many, many lives in the most positive of ways and as time passes, you will be able to remember many, many more fo the good times with him. He will always be with you.
