

Jeffrey Allen Sullivan

September 30, 1965 - August 14, 2018

Jeffrey Allen Sullivan, age 52, of Gainesville, VA; formerly Chadwicks, NY, passed away Tuesday, August 14, 2018 at his residence.

Jeffrey was born on September 30, 1965 in Utica, NY. He was the son of Robert and Elizabeth Carol (Wolf) Sullivan of Chadwicks, NY.

He was pre-deceased by his dad who died in 1978 and his youngest brother Patrick who died in 2017.

Survivors include his loving wife, Victoria L. Sullivan; two daughters, Kimberly Rogers and husband Mitch of Warrenton, VA, Ashley Marks and husband Ian of Herndon, VA; his mother, Elizabeth Carol (Wolf) Sullivan; two brothers, Robert Sullivan and wife Lisa of Frankfort, NY, Richard Sullivan of Linden, VA; three sisters, Colleen Sullivan Johnson and husband Bob, Laurie Sullivan, Heather Sullivan all of Hilton Head, SC; two grandchildren, Rylan and Harper Rogers; three nieces, Heather (David) Neveloff, Lauren (Charlie) Briffitt, Haley Peters; one nephew, Rick Sullivan Jr.; one great-niece Ella Annmarie Briffitt; and his fur baby Max.

Jeff was an amazing, husband, father, son, brother, uncle, friend, boss and Pop-Pop (his most favorite role). Jeff, owner of Specialized Construction Services, started his education at Chadwicks School then continued to Utica

College of Syracuse where he received an athletic scholarship to play soccer.

Jeff had many professional accomplishments, highlighted by his work post 9/11 on the reconstruction of the Pentagon with the Phoenix Project.

When Jeff was not running a successful company, he loved to spend time with his family, attend sporting events and play with his granddaughters. Anyone privileged to meet Jeff knew he was always willing to help anyone in need. He truly had a heart of gold.

Jeff was a role model and mentor to many people. His legacy will always endure through his generosity and love of his family and friends.

Heaven just gained another amazing angel that will be looking out for his friends and family forever.

A Celebration of Jeff's life for family and friends will be held at Stonewall Golf Club on August 25th from 1pm – 4pm. 15601 Turtle Point Drive, Gainesville, VA 20155.
