

Jennifer Lynn Nitschke

August 29, 1983 - March 1, 2025

Jennifer Lynn Nitschke, 41, passed away on March 1, 2025, in Woodbridge, Virginia. Born on August 29, 1983, Jennifer grew up attending Crestwood Elementary School and graduated from Robert E. Lee High School. She furthered her education at Strayer University, where she honed the skills that would define her professional life.

Jennifer was a dedicated Common Interest Community Manager and a Professional Community Association Manager, roles in which she excelled due to her caring nature and professionalism. Her career was marked by a commitment to fostering strong, supportive community environments.

In her personal life, Jennifer was known for her caring personality, always putting others before herself. She leaves behind a loving family who will miss her deeply: her daughter Katherine Nitschke; parents, James and Sharon Nitschke; siblings, Angela Gates and Steven Nitschke; brother-in-law, John Gates; and nieces, Aurora and Arabella Gates.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Doug Flutie Foundation for Autism, a cause close to Jennifer's heart.
