“ John and I met and visited with Jerry at his daughter's home in Haymarket. He was a very pleasant and congenial man, interesting to talk to, and had many 'stories' to tell. He dearly loved his children and grandchildren and enjoyed being with them whenever he could. I'm sure his family will cherish many loving memories of this man! Our deepest condolences are with his family and we hope they find comfort and healing in the days ahead.

Sincerely, John and Marilynne Eklund
