“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Jerry was a terrific guy and we loved his laugh here at work. He was a big guy but a gentle person. We miss him already. May God bless him and keep him in his care. May God be with his family at this sad time.

“ Dear Barbara,Michelle and Gerry,
I am sorry to know that Jerry is passed from this world and no longer here to bring us all the smiles only he could bring. I always enjoyed working with Jerry and getting to know him and his family over the years. I have alot of wonderful memories that will always make me smile and I hope that I can sit down with you sometime and just share a few. I will keep you all in my prayers.

Sincerely,

“ It was nice getting to know Jerry over the years. He was a big guy and came across as kind of intimidating until you got to know him and you realized he was really shy and quiet. I will miss his unique laugh....it made me smile from two doors down just to hear him laughing at something Larry Fletcher said. I will miss hearing Larry hollering for 'Rock' in the evenings. Jerry had many friends here at Lockheed Martin and he will be dearly missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Dear Barbara, Michele, and Gerry,

I just learned of Jerry's passing and I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I left LM in 1999 and I had not seen Jerry in quite a while. I will always remember Jerry's laugh...it always made me smile. And you always knew Jerry was in his office when his chair squeaked. Everyone could hear it down the hall. He was such a good man and will be remembered by all that met and knew him. I truly am sorry for your loss. He truly will be missed.

*Sincerely,
Robin*

“ Barbara, Michele & Gerry,

Jerry was a very nice man. Always smiled and said hi to me. I will never forget his last smile. It was so bright I was actually surprised that I had to tell Dennis about it. I know you will miss him very much but please know that you will be lifted up in prayer daily by our family. Just accept the prayers and you will be comforted by our Lord Jesus Christ.

May God Bless you and keep you,

Nancy Querry
