“ *Mary,
My heart is aching for you and your family but my heart is also rejoicing for Jerry. He is where we are all working so hard to be someday. Heaven is sweeter today because Jerry is there. He is waiting and watching for the rest of us to join him.*

I am in WV visiting family and will not be able to attend the services on Sat.

Paul will be there! You and your family is in my prayers!

“ In loving memory of a dear sweet uncle. He was such a caring man and I have so many fun memories of him. I have seen the funny, sometimes silly side and the serious but gentle side of him. Whenever I hear the song, Turn the Radio Up, I will remember you because you introduced that song to Greg and me. You will be missed by so many. I love you Uncle Jerry.

*Love Always,
Gigi and Family*

“ Jerry was a beloved brother-in-Christ. Jerry demonstrated his love for his Lord by his desire to be instrumental in preaching and teaching the Bible at every opportunity afforded him. Although Jerry appeared to be a rather quiet individual he never failed to take a stand for truth whenever being challenged or setting the record straight. My late husband, Leo, and I have always admired, respected and loved him and his family. He was always a hard worker and took his responsibility for providing for his family very seriously as well as contributing to the work of the Lord. Jerry will be missed greatly in my life and I know assuredly, in the life of Mary, Cindy and his family (including his church family). Jerry.....rest in joy and peace!
