

Jo Lenk

December 3, 1932 - March 11, 2006

Jo Carolyn Lenk, 73, long time resident of Manassas, Virginia, surrounded by her loving family she quietly entered into eternal rest on Saturday, March 11, 2006 at Capital Hospice Center in Arlington, VA. Jo Carolyn was a member of All Saints Catholic Church where she was employed as Sacristan for more than 20 years. Dedicated in quiet submission, she was content to work behind the scenes, without recognition. She ministered a listening ear to help those in need, and many referred to her as their "second mother" or their "angel." Jo Carolyn was born in Linden, Tennessee to the late James Alvin Duncan and Beulah Elizabeth Smith Duncan. She was preceded in death by her husband, Joseph Lenk, two brothers, Thomas Duncan and Scott Duncan and three sisters, Lorraine Duncan, Jewel Kaskey and Helen Rogers. She is survived by two brothers, Alvin "Red" Duncan and Ezra Duncan and one sister, Beverly Zimmerman. Jo Carolyn is survived by 12 children and one (1) stepson: Mary Ayres, Cecelia Fancey, Joseph Lenk II, Therese Lenk, Peter Lenk, Paul Lenk, Anne Platia, Helena Adams, Sophia Bigley, Monica Lenk, David Lenk, Christina Morales, and Stuart Lenk. She is also survived by 14 grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. She will be remembered by family and friends as having a tireless, hard working, and loving spirit. Thursday, March 16, 2006: Reception of the Body at 5:00pm at All Saints Catholic Church, 9300 Stonewall Road, Manassas, Viewing from 5:00 - 9:00pm in All Saints Church; Rosary at 8:00pm. Friday, March 17, 2006: Funeral Mass at 10:00am at All Saints with Rev. John J. Riley officiating, followed by the Rite of Christian

“ I am just now seeing that she passed away. I remember when I was working at labor ready in manassas I would go to the 7:30 am mass. She was always so loving and caring. always wanting to hear how I was I am very sad that she has passed and she will and is truly missed. I havent been able to go to the 7:30 am church for a long time as I have a job in chantily at that time and fairfax, va. I am truly saddened but what a better place to go than be with the Lord. My condolences to the family
