“ My first memory of Joan Buckohr was at my 6th birthday party back in New Philadelhia, Ohio. Joan was only 5. Her family, John,, Jo,, Clyde, Thelma and Joan were our next door neighbors on Fair Avenue. In 1940, my father, Herman Judy was getting only a couple of hours work a week as a machinist in the Reeves Mill, Dover, Ohio. He heard about jobs at the Torpedo Plant in Alexandria, Virginia. He came down alone and started his job here and soon sent for his wife, Hilda and their 3 children to come down. When my Dad heard that the military had jobs available for electricians in Washington, D.C. he called John and the family came down. They stayed in Franconia with us for a week and we had barrels of fun. The Buckohrs found a place to live in D.C. and we were all happy that we were close by.

Over the years, we had regular 4th of July parties and numerous fishing trips to Lake Jackson, near Manassas.

I cherish those wonderful memories of one of the best friends that I ever had and her special family. God bless you all, Donna Judy Lathe

“ Joan was my brother's Mother-in-law. She opened her heart and her home to him and Bonnie. During my brother's illness she also opened her heart and home to me. I remember she was always the most gracious hostess. She loved feeding people and laughing. I had morning coffee just the two of us, and she would stay up some evenings having a cocktail quietly chatting with me after everyone had gone to sleep. After my mother passed away, I felt a closeness to Joan and considered her my second mother. You will always be remembered and loved by many people, and me.
