“ Mildred (Mama) DeBell who will be turning 101 in March asked that we send her deepest condolences to Bubbie and Family whom she has known from the early days of Centreville after her arrival in 1938. Her son John and Bobby where best friends growing up and they spent many days at each other homes. She was fortunate to have met Joanie on several occasions, including her 90th and 95th birthday parties. She also remembers Joanie’s parents.

*She has expressed peace and love to the entire family.

“ I first came to know Joan in 1975 when she issued my marriage license. Our paths would cross again some fourteen years later when I became her co worker. She was kind and funny and always had a beautiful smile on her face. She made this world a better place and I thank her for it.
