Dear Larry and family, I am so sorry to report that Woody and I have been out of town on vacation all week and didn't know the arrangements until we returned home tonight, Friday, May 31. We have many fond memories of you and Joanne at St. Mark's as well as here at Macedonia. We treasure the memories we made at St. Marks when our children were young. Camping trips were a favorite. Joanne will always be remembered as the caring loving person she was to all people., We treasure the time we had together..

“ Aunt Joanne you will be missed by many, thank you all the cakes you baked and decorated for my birthdays when I was young. She also painted me a unicorn for one of my gifts. She had so many talents and loved the Lord.
