“ To Bobbi & their children and grandchildren, Deb, Jim, Joe and Mary ~ our deepest sympathy to all of you in this time of sorrow. You have lost a 'very special person' and God has gained a 'very special person'. When I first met John when the family moved onto Colfax Drive I remember how polite and well mannered he was and he had the most gorgeous smile with those big dimples. He is now smiling down on all of you!

“ Wish I could offer comforting words at this difficult time. So, so sorry for your incredible loss. Just know if anyone ever met John - even once - he left an impression on your life forever. Although it's been a long time, I clearly remember those dimples and that twinkle in his eye and know they were symbols of his pure, kind heart. Take comfort in all your incredible memories (of his very blessed life) that you will have forever. Sending you Love and Wishing you peace at this sad time. Please know I'm there in spirit - Marjorie Adams-Fiore
