“ I am very sorry to hear of your loss. The loss of a loved one grieves the heart and words are never enough to take away the pain. However, our Heavenly Father knows your grief. As a loving and caring Father, He will be there to comfort and sooth your "broken-heart and crushed spirit". (Psalm 34:18). May you find comfort and hope in God's promise of a day when you will reunite with your loved one again. (Isaiah 26:19). My sincere condolences to the family.

“ John, from day one all we did was fight, now all I do is fight back tears. I never did tell you all the things I felt, like how much I Love you. If you get the chance to think of me while you're up in heaven, remember how much you meant to me. It's sad that you left before I got to say goodbye. Just remember I love as you begin to fly. Well I know the family is all together but just think one day I will be there to start all the fuss up again. Your Sister

“ Jennifer, I am so sorry for your lose. Your Daymude sisters-in-laws know your pain. Johnny was such a character and jokester even when he was a little boy. He will surely be missed. The greatest comfort is knowing that all the brothers are together again. I am sure they are giving Mr. & Mrs. D a fit. Please know that you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. All my love, your sister-in-law Barbara (Gene's)

“ Jen,
My heart aches for you from the lose of the love of your life, John. To see the two of you together, was love in action. My love goes with him as he makes his journey and my love for you, dear cousin, remains to help you through this hard time. I am here for you, whatever, you need.

*Love,
Diana*

“ My heart is with my sister during this time. I will miss John and will always be grateful to him for loving my sister, being a great son-in-law to my Mother and a great brother-in-law to me.

I will miss him teasing and picking on me too!!

Rest in peace John
