“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Deville family now. John meant the world to us. He was a great friend. He loved his boys and was proud of being Mr. Mom. Rest in Peace John, until we see each other again.

“ Wendy and John's family, I am so sorry for your loss. I pray that your grief passes quickly.

Tim (they called you Timmy last time I saw you, don't know if they still do), Sean and Matthew, your father was one of the really wonderful people that one rarely gets to know. He was always loyal, compassionate and selfless to a fault. Always looking out for others even at his own expense. You should be very proud of him as I know he is of you.

John was a friend to so many that were proud to name him as one of theirs.

I am grateful for the hundreds of memories I have of time spent with John starting in elementary school and including when he stood up as Best Man at my wedding. He was the guy everyone wanted as their Best Man. That says a lot about him.

As cycles often happen with friends, there were years at a time where I spoke to or saw John almost every day, and then years where we never got in touch. I always thought he and I would catch up again some day. I guess it will be in Heaven next time. If I know John he will have a bonfire going, some beer iced down and big smile ready to tell a corny joke.

You were one of a kind Mr DeVille and you are missed.

“ I was stunned and saddened to hear of my cousin John's passing. Warm hugs to his wife and kids and to the rest of the family. Although it's been years--since we all were kids/young adults!--since I've seen my cousins, I will always remember John's sense of humor and big heart. We always looked forward to our "cousins from Virginia" coming to Fort Wayne because they were so much fun! Hey family! This is testament that we need to plan another DeVille Reunion!!!
