

John Edward Doczi

August 7, 1940 - August 18, 2017

John Edward Doczi, age 77, lived in Manassas, Virginia and was called home peacefully with God's grace on August 18, 2017.

John was born August 7, 1940 in Lorado, West Virginia. He married Elanor Pennington Doczi on June 30, 1963.

He served in the Army as a Military Policeman stationed in Fort Belvoir, Alaska and Walter Reed and later became a member of the American Legion. After the military he became a Master of Carpentry with Donahoe Construction Company. He raised his family in Manassas and was active as a Dixie Youth League Coach with GMBL. On Friday nights he stood proud as the Stonewall Jackson Senior High School's mascot. Their very own "Stonewall Jackson" sitting in the end zone atop a horse. He honored the "Great American Experiment" by proudly flying and tending to the American Flag in his front yard. As an avid historian, lover of American history and master carpenter he loved teaching and sharing his knowledge.
