“ John was such a great person. I saw him every year at the Relay for Life (cancer walk a thon) and he often would come to dinner with several including myself, Theresa and Jill. We always had great conversations. So sorry for your loss.

Sarah Kelly - August 15, 2017 at 11:43 AM

“ I meet John at Prince William Hospital 8 years ago, at the Tuesday Night Group for Cancer Survivors and their Caregivers. He was always there to present a lovely verse to each new member, which was framed and read for hanging. He was kind and caring and that is how I will remember him always. God Bless the Family. We are so sorry for your loss. Irvin and Marie West.

“ John came into my life, via the Greater Manassas Volunteer Rescue Squad 12 years ago. I have never met a more caring or loving person than John. We traveled to many places and were by each others side daily. I will miss him greatly, but I know he is at peace with our Lord. Thank you Dave, Derek and Johnny for sharing him with me. In loving memory, Theresa Thompson
