

John "Jack" Howard Flemming

February 1, 1944 - August 16, 2023

John "Jack" Howard Flemming, age 79, of Manassas, Virginia passed away at Inova Fairfax Hospital on Wednesday, August 16, 2023. Jack was a native of Monroeville, PA. Jack was the son of the late John Bernard Flemming and Jean Schaffer Flemming. Jack was preceded in death by his brother James "Jimmy" Flemming, his mother and father-in-law Albert and Hilda Latusek, his sister-in-law Kathleen Taylor (Jon) and his grand-daughter Reagan Elizabeth Flemming. Jack is survived by his loving wife of 57 years, Pat Flemming and their three children, John Albert Flemming (Mary), Cheri Shoemaker (Chris) and Chrissy Nagro (Chris). Pap-Pap Jack cherished his eight grandchildren with all his heart, John Matthew Flemming, Reagan Elizabeth Flemming, Justin Patrick Flemming, Jacob Kolbe Flemming, Ryleigh Elizabeth Flemming, Benjamin Joseph Nagro, Jack Killian Flemming and Olivia Marie Nagro. Jack leaves behind his brother Jerry Flemming and sister-in-law Karen Flemming, brother & sister-in-laws: Dr. Michael Latusek (Mary Ann), and Suzan Bresch (Mike). He was the beloved "Uncle Jack" to many beloved nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephews.

Jack attended Gateway High School and the Forbes Technical School and the University of Maryland. He began his career as a Civil Engineer with the District of Columbia Department of Transportation in 1962 where he was employed for forty years. He served six years in the Army National Guard in Washington, DC. Jack went on to work for the Virginia Department of Transportation for fifteen years followed by Prince William County Government until the time of his passing. Jack was a respected, consummate professional appreciated and admired by his co-workers. He was an active member of All Saints Catholic Church in Manassas, VA since 1978 where he served as an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion and was a Third-Degree member of the Knights of Columbus.

Jack left a legacy of love. He loved deeply and always let you know you were loved. He was the very best husband, father, and grandfather. He loved cooking & grilling for his family, taking care of his yard & garden, fixing things, fishing, and attending his grandchildren's many activities while behind the camera. Jack really enjoyed keeping up with the latest technology and gadgets. He also had an eye for good hats. Jack led by example in every aspect of his life. He had an inspiring work ethic and deep and abiding faith. His servant heart was abundantly generous with his time, talents and gifts and will be greatly missed.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to St. Jude's Children's Hospital or Catholic Charities of Arlington.

“ John was admired for his kindness and sweet smile, strong skills and professionalism, and obvious and abundant love for his big and active family. I was fortunate to work with John at VDOT where he was a force for good communication, getting things done efficiently and solving problems. His work space was routinely decorated with photos and information about his beloved grandchildren and other family members. To his beautiful family: please accept my sincere condolences.
