“ It is with deepest sorrow that I write these sentiments today. Chuck and I have been so closely connected over the years that it is hard to comprehend this loss. His characteristics and ideas were so much like Dad's and his talents and ingenious abilities reminded me of Dad's accomplishments over our years of growing up in Ohio His many emails- especially of Rae Lyn and the animals at the clinic- served as a bright spot in my life. Chuck used his knowledge and training to help his family over the years and I am grateful that God spared him a long and painful death.

Love always

“ We were sad to learn of John’s unexpected death, and we pass along our condolences to the family.

We first met John when we moved to Manassas 12 years ago and needed help with our aging AC system. John was an expert in his craft and we valued his expertise, and the kind and caring man he was. To members of his family, you have many reasons to be proud. Many will miss John.

“ John was a wonderful friend and neighbor. He would drop whatever he was doing to help you with a problem and would always say it was nothing. He was a very proud parent of his daughter, Rae Lynn and his face would light up when he talked about her and her accomplishments. We will miss seeing him across the fence, hearing his stories and watching him test out his cars and bikes that he restored so beautifully. It hurts the heart to lose someone who gave so willingly. John, we miss you!

“ Sam Brewer
So glad I got to be with him Friday before he went to be with the Lord. Here today and gone tomorrow. John liked meeting people and making friends he new the power of friendship. He was more of a giver then a taker a trait that that seems to come from his mom and dad.He liked helping people and I think that's why he had such a passion for teaching.Will miss him for now but will look forward to seeing him again some day.
